Scholarly resources for interior design and the arts. There are also quite a few humanities resources here.

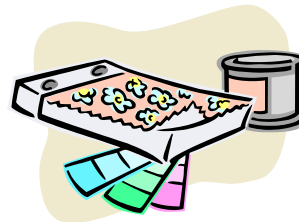

Books

Becoming an Interior Designer - Piotrowski, Christine M. Call Number: NK 2116.P56 2009 If you're embarking upon a career in interior design, here's a highly visual overview of the profession, with in-depth material on educational requirements, design specialties, finding a job, and the many directions a career in interior design can take. Featuring informative interviews with working designers, this Second Edition includes updated educational requirements and a list of accredited interior design programs in the United States and Canada.

Writing for Design Professionals - Kliment, Stephen Call Number: NA 1996.K57 2006 How well do you write? Written and oral communication play a vital role in advancing the careers of design professionals (and students), yet few design schools offer training, and few resources exist to help designers improve their writing skills. Now in its second edition—updated and expanded to address such issues as email etiquette and Web-based marketing, communication, and job searches—the best-selling Writing for Design Professionals is the standard guide for mastering the complexities of effective writing in professional practice.

Furniture Making/ Ley, Kevin Call Number: TT195.L49 2006 One of our newer titles, this book covers all aspects of making furniture. Chapters include: practicalities, projects and case studies. Many color pictures as well as detailed diagrams and step by step instructions complete this helpful book for anyone who desires to make furniture.

Lots more available in the library.

Magazines

Architectural Digest

This international magazine of design contains not only pictures of designers' homes but also many useful articles written by designers.

Dwell

This magazine focuses on interior design as it relates specifically to homes and residences.

Elle Décor

The focus of this magazine is more on furniture and decorating rather than architecture and design.

Home

This smaller magazine contains many sections useful to an interior decorator.

Interior Design

This magazine places a major focus on design and all of the elements that work together to create a well thought out and well organized room.

Metropolitan Home

This magazine focuses on more city living as well as modern design. There is also practical information on how to redo or add style and décor to already existing rooms as well as reviews of new home products.

Utah Style and Design

As implied by the title this magazine features designers and companies from within the state of Utah.
